A MESSAGE FROM FATHER NILO

My dear friends & parishioners, People of God,

Prayerful 4th Sunday of Easter and God's manifold blessings to you!

In the First Letter of St. John, from which our Second Reading comes, John declares, "Beloved, we are God's children now." St. John also provides us with our Gospel Reading. In that passage the Lord speaks of being the Good Shepherd. It reinforces the idea of us being the children of God as Jesus says, "...and there will be one flock, one shepherd." Jesus is certainly our Good Shepherd. Today, the Fourth Sunday of Easter, is also called Good Shepherd Sunday and "World Day prayer for Vocations. It always occurs at this time of year, although Jesus is our Good Shepherd every day and every hour. Let us pray for the increase of vocations to the priesthood and religious life and not to forget to pray for our respective pastors and parish priests who shepherd the parishes, the flock that God entrusted to them. May their hearts be patterned to the Chief Shepherd, Jesus Christ, our Lord. The Good Shepherd lays down His life for His sheep, which is what Jesus did for us, His children. Throughout the Acts of the Apostles, we are treated to St. Peter preaching. Today's First Reading is another example of that. Five separate times in Acts Peter preaches. His emphasis is always on Christ's Resurrection. In one way or another in every sermon Peter states, "God raised him from the dead." In association with Peter's stress of Jesus' resurrection is the call for repentance. Peter tends to remind us that if we truly repent, our sins are forgiven. He tells us that not only are we forgiven, but we are saved, But Peter did not merely proclaim Jesus as a way of salvation, but that He was really the only way to salvation. As he states in today's reading, "There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved." Peter explains many times that Jesus provides us all hope, that "our hope is in the Lord." He is the Good Shepherd on whom we must rely. Just as St. Peter wants us to understand and appreciate what Jesus did for us, St. John (in his First Letter, our Second Reading) wants us to know how much God loves us. John asks us to "see what love the Father has bestowed on us." John tells us we need to not only be aware of it, but also to ponder and meditate on it intently. Do we really do that? It is important. What might keep us from doing that? Perhaps we feel God must prove His love before we accept it. It may also be doubt, the unwillingness to trust God's love because our lives may be filled with hurts and the pain of living. Sometimes it may just take us time to gain a complete understanding of God's love for us. The idea that we are all God's children is reinforced many times in Holy Scripture. On this Fourth Sunday of Easter, Good Shepherd Sunday, we need to be aware that we remain in the Easter Season. The Easter Season is a continual celebration of the once central mystery of our Church, that Jesus gave His life for us by dying on the Cross. He saved us from our sins. We have reflected previously on why the image of a shepherd and sheep is an important one during Jesus' time. To be a shepherd in Jesus' time required living a life of total self-giving. On our sacred journey with the Risen Christ, our Good Shepherd let us be mindful of the needs of our sick brothers and sisters, especially the dying and those who need the last rites of the Church whether it is day or night, please do not hesitate to contact me at 780-3521524 or 403-4156183. This is also a ministry and the Sacrament of Healing entrusted by Jesus to His Church.

Due to changes regarding patient privacy within Alberta Health Services (AHS), if you or someone you know is admitted to the hospital, please inform those admitting staff that you are of the Catholic faith and consent to a visit from a Catholic Chaplain. It is essential that you state your Catholic religion and that you give consent for a visit from the Catholic Chaplain. You will not be able to receive a visit unless consent is given and noted on your file. If you have an upcoming surgery/procedure, you can ask your Parish Priest for the Sacrament of the Sick before being admitted to the hospital.

Easter Blessings to all!

Yours devotedly in Christ, Fr. Nilo Macapinlac, pastor

"Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the Easter people and hallelujah is our song."

- John Paul II

We are looking for individuals or families who would be willing to open their homes to Mother Mary and to a weekly gathering of your friends and neighbours during which you would pray for each other, your neighborhood, our town, our country, etc. before passing the statue of Mary on to the next household. For anyone interested there is a sign-up sheet available in the foyer. If you would like more information contact Sheila Dela Cruz or Donna in the parish office.

Listening for God's Voice

Almighty Father, you who have given us life and love, whose creation we are, whose Son redeemed the world, lead us home. We are like sheep listening for your voice, turning to you for guidance. May our hearts find in you an open gate and open arms of love even when we stumble and fall, and hear other voices beckoning. May your voice be clear and calm, and welcome us home to your Kingdom, through Christ, your Son and our Shepherd, who lives with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
